1 THE COURT: You may be seated.

2 This is all Capitol Health Management.

3 MR. NASH: Yes, Your Honor. We do have a settlement
4 to report.

5 THE COURT: Oh, good.

6 MR. NASH: All right. The major motion is the 7 landlord motion, the extension and assumption of leases, and
8 there was one objection, it was filed by our main landlord in 9 Astoria and if Your Honor recalls it was issues over use of the
10 basement, upstairs, ground floor, terms of the lease and so
11 forth.

12 What the parties have done is settled on a new lease
13 and it's a two year lease that will start June 1, 2009 and go
14 through May 31, 2011. Each year the rent will be $13,000.00
15 per month. The debtor will occupy the entire basement, the 16 first floor and one upstairs office on the second floor.
17 Parkway is giving back its two offices and the debtor is giving
18 back one office upstairs.

19 The debtor will continue to do the maintenance as 20 before. In parking, there's been a change in the parking. We 21 had seven spots. We're giving up one so the landlord will have
22 access to the side lot and one space in the back. There's four
23 --

24 THE COURT: So that would mean you have five spaces?

25 MR. NASH: Six. I have six. I'm giving back one and

1 I think they used, you know, historically, the side but the
2 landlord will have use of the side and he'll have the one in
3 the back.

4 There's four electric meters so that works out well
5 except that the heat comes through the main meter on the ground
6 floor which we occupy so the new tenants will have to make some
7 adjustments on that.

8 There's a one month security -- there's a $5,000.00
9 security deposit. There will be issued a warrant of eviction
10 and a stay that can only be exercised on thirty days prior 11 notice. I'm giving up a right of first refusal under the prior
12 lease and I believe that's about it. Am I correct?

13 MR. SCALDAFERRI: Your Honor, I think that's correct.
14 The only thing --

15 THE CLERK: State your name for the record.

16 MR. SCALDAFERRI: Ezio Scaldaferri of Feder,
17 Kaszovitz on behalf of Stemb.

18 The only thing is that the unit upstairs, the suite
19 that Capitol is retaining, is the one in the rear of the 20 building.

21 MR. NASH: In the rear -- the back. Where we are
22 now. Yes, sir. It was our original space. Correct.

23 THE COURT: Okay. But you are giving up one suite
24 upstairs?

25 MR. NASH: Yes.

1 MR. SCALDAFERRI: Correct.

2 MR. NASH: Actually, yes, Capitol is giving up one
3 and Parkway is giving up two.

4 THE COURT: Okay. And you believe that you will be
5 left with adequate space?

6 MR. NASH: Yes, I do. The basement is a key for us
7 and, obviously, the main floor is a key.

8 THE COURT: Okay. And you will reduce that to 9 writing; correct?

10 MR. NASH: Yes, we will.

11 MR. SCALDAFERRI: Yes, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: I think having a lease that's not in
13 writing is a bad idea.

14 MR. NASH: Right. I think so too. It probably
15 violates the statute of frauds or some other doctrine.

16 THE COURT: Right.

17 MR. SCALDAFERRI: Yes.

18 MR. NASH: But we will do that.

19 THE COURT: Okay.

20 MR. NASH: Your Honor, the Toshiba motion we carried.
21 I've asked Your Honor -- I'm still discussing with Toshiba to
22 carry that to June 30th, that's the next date --

23 THE COURT: Okay.

24 MR. NASH: -- at eleven and I guess we'll carry the 25 U.S. Trustee's motion to June 30th.

1 THE COURT: All right. But this now resolves all the
2 leases that were all assumption motions.

3 MR. NASH: Yes. Yes, I will submit an order assuming
4 the balance of those leases and assume this lease as modified
5 on the record.

6 THE COURT: Okay. I would urge you to try to get
7 that lease written as quickly as possible.

8 MR. NASH: I will do that this afternoon.

9 THE COURT: I mean, afterall, you use a broad form
10 lease and make a few little changes, it's not that big a deal.

11 MR. NASH: What we'll probably do is just make an
12 amendment to the old lease.

13 THE COURT: I don't really care.

14 MR. NASH: Right.

15 THE COURT: All I'm saying to you is I don't
16 anticipate that we're spending 65 hours drafting a lease.

17 MR. NASH: No, that will kill the economics of the 18 deal, Judge.

19 THE COURT: That's what I think.

20 MR. NASH: Thank you very much.

21 THE COURT: Thank you.

22 MR. SCALDAFERRI: Thank you, Judge.

23 THE COURT: Hopefully, you won't run into the 24 thundering heard on the way out.

25 MR. NASH: If you don't time it right, Judge, you

1 wait outside like a bakery.

2 THE COURT: Well, I know. We started Chrysler at
3 2:15 so, hopefully, you'll be able to get out.

4 MR. NASH: You know, it's funny, they didn't even
5 have enough room for the cell phones.

6 THE COURT: Off the record. Yes. What were you
7 going to say?

8 MR. NASH: They didn't have enough room. The guy was 9 saying, we're running out of room for the cell phones. They
10 ran out of chips for the cell phones. So I was lucky, I got
11 72. I had to make a call. He said, I'm going to save you a
12 spot because if I don't you're not going to be able to deal
13 with the cell phone.

14 Now, if you get General Motors on Monday it could be
15 even bigger.

16 THE COURT: Well, it's true, it should file on Monday
17 for trial. So I don't know. Okay.
